

Impossible is not the same as abnormal. SpO2 88 % is a sick patient and must be scored; SpO2 0 % is a probe that fell off. The checks use physical limits, never statistical outliers, because the readings that matter most are the ones furthest from normal.